A DISTINGUISHED REFERENCE WORK ABOUT DISTINGUISHED PEOPLE
Who's Who in America

WHY your assistance is urgently needed

Compilation of Who's Who in America is a monumental task, and a most important one—for only those men and women whose current positions or continuing activities set them apart from the mainstream are considered by the Advisory Board for inclusion in Who's Who in America. YOU are such a person,

...and it is to you that we address our request. Won't you help us ensure the accuracy of your biographical entry as it will appear in the 37th Edition of Who's Who in America?

You will be performing a vital service to the world of reference users who rely upon Marquis books in their research.

INTRODUCING

Thirty-seventh Edition of

Who's Who in America

the standard of excellence in biographical reference since it was first published in 1899.

For more than 70 years, Who's Who in America has been the standard reference work in contemporary American biography . . . a permanent record of achievement and position—in government, finance and industry, the law, science, the arts, religion, education, sports, and all other significant fields of endeavor.

Here are listed those individuals who are of significant national and international reference value to public and private libraries, business and professional organizations, the communications media, government officials, educators, students, scholars, researchers, and historians.

Who's Who in America is unquestionably the prime source of biographical information about men and women who have distinguished themselves above all others.

Important facts about The Thirty-seventh Edition

Renowned for scope

Although Who's Who in America is the basic reference work in contemporary American biography, outstanding world figures of interest to Americans are included.

Emerging personalities

More than 30,000 names will appear for the first time among the approximately 95,000 sketches, reflecting newly significant professions in a changing world.

Entirely re-edited

The matchless accuracy and timeliness of each biennial edition is assured by the biographers themselves who, in most instances, supply or update their data. Late data are accepted up to the last moment before publication.

Unexcelled format

The beautifully yet sturdy two-volume set is bound between covers newly designed by a foremost exponent of contemporary design.

An enduring record

The record of each Who's Who in America biographee is preserved as a permanent historical record of the nation, in the periodically published "Who Was Who." This historical set is available in most libraries and many other reference centers throughout the world.

Why compilation is continuous

Admittedly, our task is somewhat staggering. Only through continuous compilation can names be processed with the desired care. Decades of experience have proved that, with your assistance, we can maintain our strict alphabetical schedule of compilation. This is why we ask your immediate response to our data request.

LIEUTENANT GENERAL ROBERT E. CUSHMAN, JR., USMC

May 1967

Robert Everton Cushman, Jr. was born in St. Paul, Minnesota on December 24, 1914. He attended Central High School there, and at sixteen was appointed to the U. S. Naval Academy; upon graduation from the Academy he was commissioned a Marine second lieutenant. He attained the rank of Lieutenant General on June 1, 1967.

After graduation from the Marine Officer's Basic School, Lt. Cushman served at the Marine Corps Base, San Diego, California; as a platoon commander in the 4th Marines and later the 2nd Marine Brigade in Shanghai, China; at naval shipyards in Brooklyn, New York and Portsmouth, Virginia; and with the Marine Detachment at the New York World's Fair.

In June 1941, Captain Cushman was assigned as Commanding Officer of the Marine Detachment aboard the USS PENNSYLVANIA, and was serving in this capacity when the Japanese attacked the ship and other naval installations at Pearl Harbor on December 7, 1941. In May 1943 he was appointed Commanding Officer of the 2nd Battalion, 9th Marines and for the following two years led his battalion repeatedly into combat in the Bougainville, Guam and Iwo Jima campaigns.

After returning to the United States, Lt. Colonel Cushman was stationed at Marine Corps Schools, Quantico, where he completed the Senior School, served as an instructor in the Command and Staff School, as Supervisory Instructor in the Amphibious Warfare School, and was then named Head of the Amphibious Warfare Branch, Office of Naval Research, Navy Department, Washington, D. C. Following this he served two years with the Central Intelligence Agency.

Colonel Cushman was then assigned to the Staff of the Commander in Chief, U. S. Naval Forces, Eastern Atlantic and Mediterranean, in London, England and Naples, Italy, serving as Amphibious Plans Officer. In 1954 he joined the faculty of the Armed Forces Staff College at Norfolk, Virginia and in 1956 assumed command of the 2nd Marine Regiment, 2nd Marine Division, at Camp Lejeune, North Carolina.

Assigned to Washington, D. C. in February 1957, he served four years on the staff of former Vice President Richard Nixon as Assistant to the Vice President for National Security Affairs.

Brig. General Cushman was then assigned as Assistant Division Commander, 3rd Marine Division on Okinawa and, upon promotion to Major General, assumed command of the Division. Returning to the United States, he served as Assistant Chief of Staff, G-2; Assistant Chief of Staff, G-3; and Special Assistant to the Chief of Staff at Headquarters Marine Corps. He was then transferred to Camp Pendleton as Commanding General, Marine Corps Base and 4th Marine Division Headquarters Nucleus, and later during that assignment activated and served also as Commanding General, 5th Marine Division.

Ordered to the Far East in April 1967, he served briefly as Deputy Commander, III Marine Amphibious Force, Vietnam and in June, 1967 assumed Command of III Marine Amphibious Force. He was serving in this position when he was nominated by the President on 6 March 1969 as Deputy Director of Central Intelligence.

A list of the general's decorations includes: Navy Cross; Navy Distinguished Service Medal with Gold Star for 2nd award; Legion of Merit and Bronze Star with combat V's; Navy Commendation Medal; Presidential Unit Citation with two stars; Navy Meritorious Unit Citation; Argentine Naval Medal for Merit; Vietnamese Orders of Merit, 3rd and 4th classes; Vietnamese Distinguished Service Orders, Army and Navy; Vietnamese Cross of Gallantry with palm; Vietnamese Presidential Unit Citation; Korean Orders of Merit, Ulchi and Chung Mu decorations.

General Cushman and his wife, the former Audrey Boyce of Portsmouth, Virginia, have two children, Roberta Lind and Robert Everton III.
